LINC FACILITY SERVICES APPOINTS PHILIP B. ROGERS AS PRESIDENT AND CEO

Houston, TX – January 5, 2005 - Linc Facility Services, LLC (LFS) announces that Philip B. Rogers is named President and Chief Executive Officer effective immediately.

Phil brings over twenty-eight years experience in providing facility management, engineering, real estate and property management services to LFS as it builds on its core competencies and customer service expertise.

Phil began his professional career in real estate management and facility services and ascended through progressively more senior roles with Grubb & Ellis subsidiaries to become President, Eastern Region for Grubb & Ellis Management Services. He subsequently joined Consolidated Engineering Services, Inc as President and Chief Operating Officer leading them in their dynamic organizational growth from a $70 to $430 million revenue entity which ultimately was acquired by EMCOR GROUP, Inc.

A fourth generation family business owner, Phil holds a bachelor's degree in Finance from Miami University of Ohio and is a Certified Property Manager (CPM). He is an active member of the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) and serves on the National Advisory Council of the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA).

Phil will operate from the Houston-based LFS headquarters and focus on strategic growth to high value facilities, continued customer service and new opportunities both within and beyond its current customer base.

LFS, a subsidiary of The Linc Group, LLC, provides comprehensive facility management services to Fortune 500 companies primarily within the aviation, high tech, light industrial and commercial industries that require a full-time on-site staff.
